Niagara Falls Document to Be Presented Before Night is Now Expected

IMPORTANT STEPS FOR PEACE ARE LOOKED FOR

CARRANZA-VILLA IS NEARING AGREEMENT

EL PASO, July 8.—Constitutionalist agents here said today the government of Chihuahua is being reorganized today following a reported agreement last night between Carranza and Villa's representatives at the Torreon conference. It is reported that Carranza has agreed to drop several cabinet members, also his agents at Washington, because they are unsatisfactory to Villa. Villa agrees to acknowledge Carranza's authority. It is believed the attack on Queretaro will now be pushed.

Mutineers Defeated

VERA CRUZ, July 8.—Sixty deserters from the federal forces of Sub-Lieut. Aguilar, a relative of General Carranza, together with a detachment of rebels under Ricardo Lopez, were defeated in battle a mile and a quarter southwest of Tejeria yesterday by federal forces sent from Colonel Yusunza's command to recapture the deserters. Sixty of the rebel soldiers were captured and pledged allegiance to Huerta. Most of the deserting federals also were captured. The balance of the party was dispersed and the members are hiding in the hills around Vera Cruz. The federals lost no lives.

Huerta's Wife Flees

VERA CRUZ, July 8.—A telegram announcing the safe arrival of former Minister of Commerce Querido Moheño at Puerto Mexico was received by Senora Moheño here yesterday. A mysterious special train which followed that of Senor Moheño from Mexico City to Puerto Mexico carried Senora Huerta and her son Jorge, according to an intimate friend of Gen. Mario Maas, who arrived in Vera Cruz yesterday. He said that General Maas' wife accompanied Senora Huerta, and that more than $1,000,000 in gold belonging to General Huerta was placed aboard the train in Mexico City and went out of the country with the wife and son of the dictator.

OHIO STATE BOARD HITS PRIVATE GAIN

COLUMBUS, O., July 8.—The day of private profit in state work is passing. The Ohio State Board of Administration has struck it two body blows. First the board decided to stock its farms with cattle, hogs, sheep, poultry and the like. With this as a start it began the construction of creameries to furnish dairy products to all state institutions.

Then slaughter houses were planned to furnish meats. Now it is planned to open a cannery to can vegetables and fruits, raised on state farms, for winter use.

The second step was taken when the board announced that it was ready to award its last contracts for buildings to private parties. Hereafter the state will use prison labor on all of its buildings. The state now has a brick plant in operation with convicts in charge and convicts at work under the honor system.

GEORGIA SOLONS DOWN BALLOT FOR WOMEN

ATLANTA, Ga., July 8.—Suffrage for women failed of a favorable report in the Georgia House of Representatives yesterday by one vote. The house committee on constitutional amendments decided, 5 to 4, to report adversely a bill giving the women the right to the ballot in state and county elections.

Rain Storm Saves Missouri Fruit and Corn

MONTGOMERY, Mo., July 8.—A heavy rainstorm saved the corn crop and also the pastures in northeast Missouri yesterday. The people fairly shouted as the rain continued to fall for an hour in blinding sheets. It will almost insure the corn crop and will help the fruit.

DISSOLUTION SUIT AGAINST NEW HAVEN

McReynolds Will Bring Anti-Trust Action in Wrecked Railroad Matter

WASHINGTON, July 8.—The long series of negotiations between the government and the New Haven railroad to bring about the reorganization of that big system without an anti-trust suit have apparently ended in failure. As a result of developments in the situation, Attorney-General McReynolds has decided to file a suit in equity under the Sherman act for the dissolution of the road. The suit will be filed in the United States district court for the southern district of New York, probably before the end of the month.

The government will file the bill of complaint that we prepared by the department of justice last October, but which was held up when Chairman Elliott of the New Haven initiated his effort to reach an agreement with the government for a reorganization of the road without litigation. The failure of the negotiations is due directly to the refusal of the New Haven to sell its stock in the Boston and Maine road under the condition fixed by the Massachusetts legislature.

KENTUCKY SUFFERS FROM DROUGHT; PRAYS FOR RAIN

LEXINGTON, Ky., July 8.—The worst drought Kentucky has known in many years prevails all over the state. There has been no rain of consequence for three months. Crops of all kinds are greatly damaged and forest fires are raging in the mountains. Yesterday in Hopkinsville every minister in the city called his congregation to a union mass meeting at which prayers were sent up for rain.

IRON MAN MCGINNITY INVENTS GROUND DRYER

TACOMA, Wash., July 8.—"Iron Man" McGinnity, president of the Tacoma Northwestern League, formerly a big league twirler of renown, is enthusiastic today over a ground drying machine he has invented. The machine is similar to a huge blow torch, is about four feet long, and mounted on three wheels. Four distillate burners furnish the heat. After a hard night's rain McGinnity claims the machine will dry out the diamond in two hours.

MRS. CARMAN ARRESTED FOR MRS. BAILEY MURDER

REEPORT, July 8.—The coroner today held Mrs. Edward Carman in connection with the murder of Mrs. William Bailey who was shot to death in the office of the former's husband, Dr. Carman, on the night of June 13. Mrs. Carman was arrested in her home, and was taken to jail in an automobile.

POSTS NOTICES JOHN R. SMITH SEEKING HIS PATENTS

Danger is that Gail Borden Would Control the Trabuco

CLAIMS COVER 720 ACRES OF CANYON

Rights Asserted Are That the Land is Proven Mineral Property

Gail Borden has posted notices in Trabuco canyon of his application for a patent covering 720 acres on the ground that the property is mineral bearing. This is of unusual interest and importance to Orange county for should Borden get the patents he might be in a position to lessen the use by the public of a portion of Trabuco canyon, one of the most beautiful in Southern California.

A large portion of the finest part of Trabuco canyon lies within the Cleveland National Forest. Before lines were drawn in forest matters tight enough to prevent it, mining claims were filed upon in this canyon. In this county there is a widespread sentiment that this portion of the mountainous wonderland should be set apart by the government as a permanent pleasure ground for the people. That the government in general would sympathize with an action to give the people the use of the canyon is well known by those who know the policies of the forest service.

Years ago there was considerable excitement over a report that tin had been discovered in the Trabuco. Old-timers here well remember the formation of the Santa Ana Tin Mining Co. Some of them remember this event to the tune of many dollars. Development proved that as a tin mine there was nothing to it. But the company spent a lot of money in establishing a mill, building roads and other work. No great amount of work was ever done in actual mining.

About eight years ago came a change in the spirit of the alleged value of Trabuco as a place for mines. This time it was gold. It was admitted that there was no tin, but reports went out that by some new process the rock could be made to give up the yellow stuff. Time went on and nothing came of the fever. Gail Borden, famous as a manufacturer of condensed milk, seemed to be putting up most of the money for development, and finally he sued and took over the property. Fear has been expressed here that should Borden get patents to the land he might be in a position to establish a summer resort and possibly close the canyon or parts of it against the public.

The matter has stood in abeyance for some time awaiting the application of Borden for patents on his thirty-six claims, aggregating 720 acres.

Two years ago J. C. Metzgar, secretary of the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce, began looking the matter up, and he has been watching it closely. He says that should Borden get the patents there not only is a possibility but a very strong probability that he would close the canyon against the people.

"I am satisfied that our Chamber of Commerce will do whatever it can to prevent the issuance of patents to Borden for this land," said Metzgar. "There is no question in my mind but that a great asset of the county would be partially if not totally ruined should this property pass into the hands of any private person or concern. This county should fight these applications to the last ditch."

$50,000 DIAMOND THEFT OCCURS IN BALTIMORE

BALTIMORE, Md., July 8.—One of the largest diamond thefts here in recent years came to light last night with the arrest of Louis Kappelman, accused of stealing gems from a local jewelry company. It is understood that in the fifteen months the alleged thefts have been going on, about $50,000 in jewelry was taken. Kappelman was a trusted employee of the firm.

TOWERS FOR DEFENSE AGAINST AIR CRAFT

LONDON, July 8.—As defense against attacks by air craft the British government decided yesterday to dot the coasts of the British Isles with a series of towers, each armed with two quick-firing guns of special design. A complete circle of towers is to be erected around naval stations such as Portsmouth and Rosyth and at other specially vulnerable points.

WILSON WANTS WARBURG

WASHINGTON, July 8.—President Wilson remained firm today in his demand for the confirmation of his appointments of Paul Warburg and Thomas Jones as members on the Federal Reserve Bank Board. It is understood he is trying to persuade Warburg to reconsider his refusal to serve.

JOHN R. SMITH A SUICIDE VICTIM

Former Prominent Merchant of Santa Ana Kills Self at Church

IN NOTE HE SAYS HE WAS SWINDLED

Suffering and Financial Misfortunes Marked Recent Years

Despondency following years of ill health and suffering and more recently years of failing fortune are thought to be responsible for the suicide in Los Angeles yesterday of John R. Smith, formerly a prominent merchant of Santa Ana. Smith shot himself to death at a church.

Smith came to Santa Ana about nine years ago, and opened the Main Department Store, which he ran for about three years. He was a cripple, and later a cancerous growth developed upon his face to add to his physical suffering. He and his family lived at 1608 North Main street. A few months ago they moved to Los Angeles.

Concerning Smith's suicide the Los Angeles Times says:

Walking leisurely to the entrance of the Newman Methodist Episcopal Church at Ruth avenue and Agatha street yesterday afternoon, J. R. Smith, a former banker and merchant, paused a moment to read the church announcement board, and then, mounting the steps to the darkened vestibule, placed his gold-headed cane in a corner and shot himself through the right temple. He died later at the Receiving Hospital. Mr. Smith's wife and three children live at No. 4627 Cimarron avenue.

In the pockets of Mr. Smith, with a bank book showing substantial deposits, was found the following note scrawled on the back of a bill of sale: "Dear Mamma and Sweet Children: I have been swindled out of $500 in this restaurant. This is the bill of sale to it. Get what you can out of it. It will not be much. Bury me as cheap as you can. Your loving husband, J. R. Smith."

The following footnote was appended: "I have outlived my usefulness. You will be better off without me. Get Mr. Sherwood to help sell the farm." The bill of sale gave Smith a half interest in a restaurant at No. 834 East Fifth street with Mr. Hiland. It had been signed only last Monday.

Learns of Deal

Yesterday was a day of much enlightenment to Mr. Smith, according to the findings of Detectives Beaumont and King. Early in the day Mr. Smith went to the restaurant expecting to sign the partnership agreement with Mr. Hiland. He did not find Mr. Hiland in charge, but Mrs. G. Robertson of No. 803 1/2 Griffin avenue. She said Mr. Hiland had sold her a half interest in the business three weeks ago. Mr. Smith told the broker in the case that Mrs. Robertson's name had not entered into the negotiations. He also said that he had paid an exorbitant price for his share. Early in the afternoon Mr. Smith went to the second-hand shop at No. 816 East Fifth street of Barnett Levenson, who has been very much in the police eye lately. From Levenson's son Mr. Smith purchased a cheap "suicide" gun.

"That ought to be enough to blow a man's head off, ought it not?" he joked. He gave his true name and address.

A few hours later the Rev. G. E. Foster, pastor of the Newman Methodist church, sitting on the porch of his home at No. 739 Ruth avenue with his wife, daughter and a friend, was surprised to see a man stop before the church. He looked about him, walked leisurely into the vestibule and seated himself. The minister could see his legs projecting beyond the door.

He was crossing to learn the stranger's wants when the shot was heard. The bullet, which had passed through Mr. Smith's head, was found in the wall. Before coming to California fourteen years ago Mr. Smith was president of the First National Bank at McGregor, Texas. For thirteen years following he was proprietor of a department store in Santa Ana. The family came to Los Angeles a year ago.

LONDON SOCIETY NIGHT REVEL IN THE LIMELIGHT

LONDON, July 8.—Despite attempts to screen the society girls who were among the midnight river party when Sir Dennis Anson was drowned last week, Lady Diana Manners, Miss Nancy Cunard and other members of the smart set were brought into the light of publicity today when the inquest opened in the Lambeth coroner's court. They have been summoned to give evidence, with Count Constantine Benckendorff, Raymond Asquith, a son of Jasper Ridley, A. D. Cooper, a son of Lady Agnes Cooper and others.

The Kilkenny Cats

According to the veracious satire of Dean Swift, it seems that one day two cats, urged on by a malevolent and violent spirit, ate each other up, leaving nothing but their tails. There never has been a more exhaustive treatment of any subject, anatomical or literary.

We may ask ourselves how it was possible. There are physical laws denying it. After they had eaten each other's teeth what had either left to eat with? And how could each be stowed in the other's stomach at the same time

Nevertheless, we must concede the possibility of the event and accept the historical accuracy of the account. Indeed, one need not go so far as Kilkenny, but may witness like incidents right at home.

Two women fall out and resort to slander. Each produces to the public gaze all the frailties of the other; their acquaintances complacently accept what each one says, and in the end both characters are annihilated. Execute Kilkenny cats!

Two men go to law over something. They retain counsel, enter complaints, subpoena witnesses, empanel juries, hear verdicts, make appeals, multiply costs. Adjourning after adjourning, vexation after vexation, business neglected, patience exhausted, years wasted and on both sides the last dollar spent. The Kilkenny cats have interlocked their claws, clashed each other's teeth, opened each other's jaws, and gulped each other's all. Extermination is just as complete as that at Kilkenny.

Yes, it is sad but true that all around us, in a thousand ways, divinely gifted human beings are eating one another up. And not always is so much as a caudal appendage left.

"In pace requie—scat!"

HERE IS A REALLY, TRULY WORTH WHILE SUGGESTION

Walter Vandermast, who has just returned from a trip to San Diego, having made several long side trips from that city, offers a suggestion worthy of consideration by the Associated Chambers of Commerce.

Mr. Vandermast points out that hundreds of thousands of automobile tourists will pass through this county next year—that tens of thousands annually are doing so now.

"But ninety per cent of them," he says—and says truly,—"on their initial trip will do no more than 'pass through.' A vast majority of them will not even know they are in Orange County. They will think all intervening territory belongs or attaches either to San Diego or to Los Angeles."

Every mile, every foot of the state highway in this county is through marvelously beautiful and productive country, and Mr. Vandermast thinks it ought to be labelled. He suggests sign posts starting at the north and south county lines and placed every mile, or every five miles at least, reading:

ORANGE COUNTY
— miles to SANTA ANA,
the County Seat.

And the suggestion is unquestionably a good one. In our judgment such sign boards would be the best possible advertisement for the money they would cost.

PLANS HOME FOR UNEMPLOYED MEN IN RIVERSIDE CO.

RIVERSIDE, July 8.—W. F. Gardner, special agent of the California Water Conservation Commission, is here to investigate the feasibility of the state granting permission to Riverside county to develop 1,000,000 acres of at present arid lands in the eastern part of this county. This land will be used as a home for unemployed men, following the suggested plan of the committee representing the Riverside Church Federation.

If the plan appears feasible to Mr. Gardner, he will formulate a bill to be presented at the next session of the legislature and that body will be asked to secure the land under the Carey act, as an individual might secure it.

ENGLISH ARSENAL STRIKE ENDS

WOOLRICH, Eng., July 8.—The strike at the government arsenal here, which began Monday and involved 12,000 men, ended last night. The men will resume work today, the government inspector having promised to investigate their grievances.

FORTUNE FOR SHELL FISH

SEATTLE, Wash., July 8.—During the last year the shell and salmon fishing industry has netted the citizens of this state $14,752,652, according to a report by State Fish Commissioner Darwin today. This amount is twice as much as the year previous. More than 2,869,126 cases of salmon were packed, valued at $12,937,006.

BAD TEETH MAY BE CAUSE OF HEART AND KIDNEY DISEASE

ROCHESTER, N. Y., July 8.—That decayed teeth may be the cause of inflammatory rheumatism and heart, kidney and other diseases, is a conclusion of the Scientific Foundation and Research Commission, presented last night in its report to the National Dental Association, which is in convention here.

Investigation with rabbits has shown that when injections of the virus of a tooth abscess are made the animals die within a few days and show heart muscles badly deteriorated, serious kidney trouble, joint disease and arteries broken down.

The commission intends to make experiments with rabbits which are normal to discover whether the same lesions exist as are found in those upon which virus has been used. If they do not exist in something like the same proportions, it will be assumed that the poison that killed the rabbit must, in the human system, tear down the heart, kidneys and tissues.

STANFORD HEAD LEADS N. E. A. PRESIDENCY RACE

ST. PAUL, July 8.—The election of David Starr Jordan of Stanford University as president of the National Educational Association is a certainty today, although the election is two days distant. No opposition has yet developed to Oakland for the 1915 convention.

GUADALAJARA BESIEGED BY REBELS

Obregon at City Gates—Hopes to Take Stronghold Within Few Hours

WESTERN MEXICO SIEGE MAY BE NEARING END

30-Hour Battle Near Guadalajara Ended in Rout of Federals by Obregon's Command

SALTILLO, July 8.—Gen. Obregon, commanding the department of the west under Carranza, telegraphed his chief today: "Our forces are within the city gates. Fighting is desperate but we expect to capture the city in a few hours."

Guadalajara was the city referred to in the message. This indicates that the rebel siege in Western Mexico is nearing an end. Guadalajara and Mazatlan were the principal objective points. The federals' defenses thus far have withstood all assaults. Other messages from near Guadalajara said that fighting is progressing, but contained no details.

REBELS DEFEAT FEDERALS IN THIRTY HOUR BATTLE

ORENDAIN, Jalisco, Mexico, July 8.—How the rebels under Gen. Obregon defeated five or six thousand federals in a desperate fight staged twenty-five miles north of Guadalajara between daylight Monday and noon on Tuesday, was told today by couriers from the field of battle. The federals sallied from Guadalajara on Sunday night hoping to surprise and annihilate Gen. Obregon's vanguard. Instead the rebels ambushed the federals. The latter made a terrific resistance for thirty hours but were finally beaten, fleeing in disorder toward Guadalajara. In their haste they left their dead and wounded on the field.

Gen. Obregon captured hundreds of prisoners. Ten troop trains, several cannon, quantities of rifles and an immense store of provisions and ammunition were also taken. At latest accounts General Obregon, who personally commanded his troops, was pursuing the defeated federals. The loss in killed and wounded on both sides was heavy, but no estimates were available.

NINE OF KARLUK CREW BELIEVED PERISHED

OTTAWA, July 8.—A report received heretoday by Deputy Marine Minister Desbaretz from Captain Ballelt declared that at least nine members of the Stefanon expedition which left their steamer, Karluk, after it sank, have not been heard from since. He believes they have perished.

COLD-BLOODED MURDER AT NORWALK TODAY

NORWALK, Cal., July 8.—Jose Martinez went today to the home of Sisto Valdez, called Valdez to the door, and then shot him dead. Valdez fell into the arms of his wife while Martinez fled. Three bullets passed through his body. Constable John Freeman headed a posse to search for the slayer. Scores of ranchers joined in the man hunt in the hills to the northeast. According to the neighbors, a secret feud of years' standing existed between the men.

NO TRACE OF MARTIN

POMONA, July 8.—R. J. Martin, who mysteriously disappeared from his ranch here, leaving a note saying he would throw himself from a mountain peak, was still missing today. Parties have been sent to various mountain trails to search for him, but late today none had reported success. The police believe he rode a bicycle toward Los Angeles. It is reported Martin was a relative of J. Ross Clark, the Salt Lake railroad magnate.

PROSPERITY IS REVIVING IN NATION

Pennsylvania R.R. Invites Army of Employees to Return; Tide is Turning

PHILADELPHIA, July 8.—Unimpeachable evidence that the nation is advancing toward an era of encouraging business conditions and unbounded prosperity in every walk of life was submitted to the world when it was learned here yesterday, from what are believed to be authentic sources, that the Pennsylvania railroad has issued an order inviting the thousands of men who were thrown out of their jobs several months ago to report again for duty.

Promises of vacations to employees of the company—which, with the discharge of the workmen in the early spring, were withdrawn—have been renewed, if also was learned, and there is a general rejoicing about the shops and offices of the system.

Nation-Wide Revival at Hand But this was not all. Another announcement, made simultaneously with that of the re-employment, gave rise, at points all along the Atlantic coast, to an expression of confidence in approaching prosperity that will be nation-wide in its scope.

The announcement states that official orders have been sent by the Pennsylvania to its shops at Altoona to proceed again with the construction of eighty-four giant locomotives, which will constitute the remainder of its 1914 provision for motive power equipment. The locomotives, it is declared, will entail an expenditure of about $1,680,000.

Order Regarded Significant Work on the locomotives was ordered stopped when financial depression necessitated the discontinuance of the services of more than 1000 men. The order today, therefore, is regarded as extremely significant.

It was not alone the Pennsylvania railroad that played an important part today in heralding prosperity to the world. The steamship Great Northern, a vessel 525 feet in length, was launched with imposing ceremonies this afternoon at the Cramp shipyard. It was built for the Great Northern Steamship Company and will ply between Portland, Astoria and San Francisco, with frequent dockings at the port of Los Angeles. The vessel was christened by Mrs. E. M. Lacey, wife of C. C. Lacey, marine superintendent of the steamship company.

TO PATRONS OF OUR CONCERTS—Many complaints have come to us from parties attending the open-air concerts. Lovers of music, who come for a good time, but particularly to listen, state that so much talking, is done during the numbers that it takes away much of the pleasure.

Parking space has been provided for the machines and drivers are requested to start them only between numbers, during which time everybody may talk as loud as he (or she) pleases.

We urgently request that during the pieces the audience remain quiet and assist the marshal and deputies in maintaining order.

Concerts start July 8, 1914.

LEE IS POLICE CHAPLAIN

LOS ANGELES, July 8.—For the first time in its history the police department of Los Angeles has an official chaplain. The Rev. Baker P. Lee, rector of Christ Episcopal church, received his appointment yesterday afternoon from Chief Sebastian, just before the rector left on a three months' tour of Europe with Mrs. Lee.

GREASED PIG RUN TO DEATH

La Habra's Celebration of Fourth Marked by One Fatality

LA HABRA, July 8.—Emancipation for that American country institution, the "greased pig," is in sight, and if the desires of some La Habrans prevail, within a year the little fellows which annually on various occasions furnish amusement for picnic games and other entertainments will have been wiped off the program.

And it is one poor little piggie which will be the savior of his kind, for he died here last Saturday after a wild chase by a crowd of boys at the Fourth of July celebration. Rosen Woolsey and Troy Vinnege caught the little porker, and straightway they went to the local butcher and negotiated for the transfer of his ownership. But when the butcher came to look at the pig he found him dead and the sale was off.

The poor little fellow had died in the ring like a bull in the arena. There was a chorus of ahs and ohs from the women and grunts from the men that day and so affectedly have the people become over the untimely end of the pig that they say never again in La Habra will it be permitted to chase a greased pig. The women even go so far as to suggest a crusade and a society may be formed to stamp out the practice all over the country.

Mrs. George Hilbert, Mrs. G. W. Beck, Mrs. Fred Aldredge and Mrs. Charles Varney, who composed the entertainment committee, say they will never again have a greased pig on a program in which they are interested.

WORLD TITLE GOES TO FREDDIE WELSH

LONDON, July 8.—Fred Welsh, lightweight champion of England, outboxed Willie Ritchie, the American champion, last night, and on the referee's decision, won the lightweight championship of the world.

At Olympia, the 8000 spectators witnessed a fast and clever bout. Rapid footwork and lightning were pronounced features. The British victory was cheered to the echo, although there was some dissatisfaction among the spectators at the decision, because neither man was bested at the finish. Although Welsh scored the greatest number of blows, those of the American appeared to be the more telling.

It was a fine exhibition of boxing. Neither man went to the floor, and the struggle during the last six rounds was of a hurricane character. Welsh was the quicker and tapped Ritchie repeatedly on the face, finally drawing blood. The American tried continually for a knockout, but either he was short or Welsh got inside or under the swing.

Ritchie, at his hotel, said:

"I do not intend to make a holier, but I do think the worst I should have got was a draw. Welsh was holding on the time, and I was doing the fighting. Therefore, I think the decision was not fair to me."

Ritchie hurt his right hand in the bout, but otherwise was not much damaged except for a few bruises on the face.

All the old-timers are agreed that the contest was one of the fastest and finest exhibitions of boxing witnessed in London in recent years. Some of them expressed the opinion that Ritchie would have come out on top in a finish fight. The Welshman's footwork and dodging were far quicker than the American's, and he preferred much of the time to get to close quarters where Ritchie could not use his powerful swings. There was altogether too much holding throughout to please the English spectators.

During the last four rounds Ritchie forced the fighting hard for a knockout, while Welsh was plainly playing to win a decision on points.

The office of "Father" Poudier, in clerical garb, as announcer, was a novelty, but the expected appearance of battalions of women fizzled to a mere hundred or so. The American contingent included many theatrical people and the members of the Harvard and Union boat crews.

Many of the nobility sat close to the ringside, as did several clergymen.

SPECIAL TAX BALLOTING IS VERY LIGHT

Voting on the $10,000 special tax to pay the teachers and janitors' salaries for May and June is very light. Up until noon today only about thirty to fifty votes had been cast in each of the five wards.

EGG CHAMPIONSHIP IS STILL CONTESTED

Orange News: G. W. Brown of East Culver avenue has a hen which has been threatening to break the egg record on size for some time. This hen was recently the author of an egg measuring 8 1/2 inches in circumference the long way and 7 inches the small way. This is almost as large as an egg laid by a hen belonging to G. E. Shriver, measuring 8 1/2 by 7 1/2 and weighing 5 1/2 ounces; also one laid by a hen belonging to G. T. Clapp, measuring 9 1/2 by 7 1/2 and weighing 6 ounces.

Mr. Brown's hen is a Plymouth Rock, 2 years old. Although slightly behind the record, she is still trying.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER IS SEVENTY-FIVE TODAY

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., July 8.—John D. Rockefeller, oil king and "the richest man in the world," today is celebrating his seventy-fifth birthday. Because it was feared that the "Free Speechers," the I. W. W.'s and the Ferrer anarchists might pick today as a good one for another demonstration against Rockefeller because of his attitude in the recent Colorado strike war, a heavier guard than usual was placed about the great mansion in Pocantico Hills. The oil king's son, John D., Jr., was expected to spend the day here with his father.

Hundreds of telegrams and messages of congratulations poured into the Rockefeller home today from all sections of the globe where Rockefeller has business and personal friends.

Many messages came from royalty and the crown heads of Europe. Rockefeller on his seventy-fifth birthday is accredited with a fortune close to a billion, thus making him the only billionaire in the world. The assessment of his property in Cleveland some months ago, when he refused to pay taxes there, placed his holdings far in excess of $800,000,000.

According to John D.'s physician, Dr. H. F. Bigger, Rockefeller's health is better today than it has been in many years. He continues his daily program of a game of golf, an automobile ride, and perhaps a bicycle ride. Despite many reports that Rockefeller's health is bad, Dr. Bigger declares his wealthy patient is unusually healthy and vigorous for a man of his years, and especially when the early cares and worries he went through are taken into consideration.

The anniversary was not a cheerful one, however. His wife is absent and ill, and his son in seclusion in Maine. Rockefeller is more elaborately guarded than the czar. Heavily armed deputies and savage dogs patrolled the Pocantico estate and the house is said to be a network of alarm signals. Rockefeller breakfasted at 8:30 o'clock, later playing eighteen holes of golf.

EGG CHAMPIONSHIP IS STILL CONTESTED

Orange News: G. W. Brown of East Culver avenue has a hen which has been threatening to break the egg record on size for some time. This hen was recently the author of an egg measuring 8 1/2 inches in circumference the long way and 7 inches the small way. This is almost as large as an egg laid by a hen belonging to G. E. Shriver, measuring 8 1/2 by 7 1/2 and weighing 5 1/2 ounces; also one laid by a hen belonging to G. T. Clapp, measuring 9 1/2 by 7 1/2 and weighing 6 ounces.

Mr. Brown's hen is a Plymouth Rock, 2 years old. Although slightly behind the record, she is still trying.

GRANDMA NEVER LET HER HAIR GET GRAY

Kept Her Locks Dark, Thick, Glossy, With Sage Tea and Sulphur

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and look years younger.—Advertisement.

PROGRESSIVES NAMED EIGHT FOR DISTRICT

Eight Women Also Will Run

mittee

State Senator Carr Says No Doubt Johnson Will Be Re-elected

At a meeting of Progressives at the city hall last night steps were taken to secure nominations for central committeemen for the first supervisorial district. Under the new state law each party's central committee is selected by supervisorial districts and not by precincts as hitherto, and under the proportion of Progressive registrations in the first district to the number of Progressive registrations in the county there are to be eight Progressive central committeemen in the first district, which comprises Santa Ana.

It was proposed last night to put at least sixteen names upon the primary ballot, eight to be elected. Eight of these sixteen will be women. Last night it was decided to circulate nomination petitions to get the names of the following men as committeemen of the first district: Dr. C. D. Ball, Robert McPadden, G. L. Wright, A. C. Black, Steele Finley, S. J. Jackson, Ralph W. Mead and P. L. Tople. The eight women who are to be put in nomination have not yet been selected.

When the meeting was opened last night by S. J. Jackson, chairman of the county central committee, State Senator Carr of Pasadena, who is engaged here in the trial of the Yorba Linda water rights case, was called upon for an address. Carr is the law partner of Francis J. Heney, candidate for the Progressive nomination for United States senator, and spoke of the arrangements that are being made for Heney's address here next

HOW STUDENTS MAY GET OUT OF THE EXES

County School Board Says Be Good and Also Be Bright,
That's How

Here is how bright, good little boys and girls can get out of taking the final examinations next June. It is an offer that holds good all over the county, except in the Santa Ana city schools.

The county board of education has passed a rule whereby any student of the common schools under its jurisdiction may be excused from taking examination in a given subject, provided the student during the school year maintains an average of at least 85 per cent in that subject.

So bright boys and girls ought to be able to get out of several examinations, so far as studies are concerned.

But the bright boys and girls must also be good little boys and girls.
In order to get out of taking final examinations a student must have an average department of 90 per cent for the school year. Since only 85 per cent is expected for scholarship, it looks as though goodness is going to count more than brightness.

The county school board has organized for the coming year's work by electing J. R. Parker of Fullerton as president of the board. S. R. Fitz of Garden Grove takes a place on the board, succeeding V. R. Brown of Huntington Beach. The other members are J. J. Zieman of Santa Ana, W. M. Fishback of Orange and County Superintendent Mitchell, secretary.

MERCHANTS WILL ENJOY BARBECUE AT COUNTY PARK

(By Staff Correspondent)

ORANGE, July 8.—The regular monthly meeting of the Merchants & Manufacturers' Association will take the form of a barbecue this evening at the Orange County Park. A large attendance is expected and plans are being made for a great time.

Transportation will be provided for those who have none. The party will leave the Plaza at 6 o'clock.

A swimming party, concluded with a dance, was a delightful event of Monday evening enjoyed by the Modern Priscillas of Villa Park, with their husbands and gentlemen friends.

Miss Elsie Wulff, who is training as a nurse at the Angeles hospital, was home from Los Angeles accompanied by Miss Philburn, another nurse, who will be her guest for a short time. Miss Wulff gave the swimming party in honor of her friend; the affair being held at the reservoir on the H. W. Wulff ranch.

Besides being a novel event it was also an enjoyable one. The plunge was followed by the serving of refreshments of ice cream and cake.
The party then adjourned to the Villa Park hall, where the remainder of the evening was pleasantly occupied with dancing.

E. C. Franzen of Fairhaven avenue was painfully injured last Friday when a cultivator fell on his foot while he was at work on his ranch.

Mr. Franzen paid but slight attention to the mishap until yesterday when his foot became so painful that he secured medical attention. A broken toe and a badly bruised foot were found to be the sum of his injuries. The foot has been placed in a plaster cast to mend.

The Orange Commercial Club baseball team will line up next Saturday against the Mathews team of Los Angeles. The game will be played on the local grounds.

Prospects are considered very bright for a winning team here this season and much interest is developing. The team is strong at every position and in every department. The best of the championship high school team has been strengthened by a number of older stars and the combination is a very strong one.

The Tattling Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Charles B. Christenson on North Orange street yesterday afternoon. There was a small attendance on account of the busy season, but those present enjoyed themselves immensely. Toward the close of the afternoon delicious refreshments of strawberry ice cream and cakes were served. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. H. F. Dalrymple at 165 North Orange street, Tuesday, July 21.

Those present were Mesdames N.
W. Potter, Herace Lucy, H. B. Slater,
W. C. Weachter, C. J. Porter and C. B.
Christensen.

Mrs. Charles Wallace and daughter of Hemet arrived this morning for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
C. D. Post, and other relatives.

Miss Anna Armstrong of Ames, Ia., is visiting with her brother, Leo Armstrong, and family. She will remain

"I Am Going to Sell Out and Buy 160 Acres of Milford Valley Land"

G. A. HALSTEAD

The following letter was written by G. A. Halstead of Byron, Oklahoma, to his friend Charles A. McClain of Whittier, Cal., upon the former's return to his home after having personally investigated the Milford Valley lands. Permission to publish this letter was obtained through the courtesy of both gentlemen.

Byron, Oklahoma, June 20, 1914.

Mr. Chas. A. McClain, Whittier, Cal.

Dear Friend:—Arrived here all right, but find it very warm in Oklahoma.

I spent two days in Milford Valley. Covered practically the entire valley in an automobile. It is the best land and water proposition I have even seen for the money. A man must see this project to fully appreciate it.

I went out on the new tract and saw land that had just been broken up five or six weeks.
Saw fine stands of alfalfa and all other crops. Went to the old settlement adjoining this land and saw the finest grade of alfalfa in the west. In our party were two men from Imperial, one from Ventura, one from San Diego and a man from Los Angeles. We all agreed that this alfalfa would make two and one-half tons to the acre. We saw orchards loaded with apples, pears, plums, apricots, peaches, cherries—in fact all kinds of deciduous fruits. We saw pear trees forty years old without a sign of blight—and those old settlers really do not do anything except what they can perform on horseback.

Went to the great reservoir and found the irrigation system first-class. Thoroughly examined the soil and must say that I never saw anything better. If I can sell my farm I want 160 acres of Milford land.
Very truly yours,
G. A. HALSTEAD.

THE TARIFF BOOMERANG

In the "Times" report of the Riverside speech of Capt. J. D. Fredericks we read as follows:

"Capt. Fredericks pointed to the ignoring of the California legislature and California products and industries two years ago when a memorial was sent to the Democratic Congress not to remove the tariff from citrus and beet sugar products. He said half a million people in California favor the protection policy and upon this protection the superstructure of California's greatness has been reared. He pointed to the fact that twelve beet sugar factories have been closed since March because of free trade. There is no sophistry of the progressive orators that will successfully combat this living evidence of the damage that has been done to California and over here in the citrus belt the people are aroused."

In this county Capt. Fredericks will probably speak to the same effect. But whether he does or not it seems pertinent to inquire—

Whose votes in Riverside and Orange counties elected a tariff destroying Democratic Congressman to misrepresent (in respect to the tariff) the Eleventh Congressional District of California?

Whose votes in these counties defeated a strong protectionist and a good Republican, S. C. Evans of Riverside?

Whose votes in these two counties and throughout California and the entire country elected a tariff-destroying Democratic president and Congress?

Not Progressive votes.

Not Progressive Republican votes.

Not Democratic votes.

Whose votes, then?

The votes of these same Republicans who are denouncing the effects of their own votes, and falsely charging the responsibility to the account of the Progressives.

Everybody who can read figures and add and subtract knows that Republican votes—not Progressive votes or Progressive Republican votes—elected Mr. Wilson and most of the Democratic Congressmen.

These Republicans who preferred Mr. Wilson to Mr. Roosevelt, Mr. Kettner to Mr. Evans, should not now charge the Progressives or Progressive Republicans with the economic evils flowing from Democratic tariff revision.

THE "WETS" SLUSH FUND

The Riverside Press, like the Register, is supporting "California Dry," and some time ago it mentioned the fact that it had turned down a $1500.00 advertising contract offered by the liquor interests. The advertising offered was not liquor advertising, but campaign advertising against state-wide prohibition. The Press properly took some credit to itself for refusing such a big advertising contract, and incidentally remarking that the "Drys" hadn't even expressed their appreciation of the paper's support of their cause.

The Register turned down the same contract that the Press refused, but didn't think to mention the fact, perhaps because this paper has been more fortunate than the Press in receiving expressions of appreciation from the "Drys."

As we figured it, the advertising offered the Register by the "Wets" would have come to only a little over $1000.00; but then the Register's advertising rates are lower than those of the Press.

The impulse to mention this matter in these columns now arises from the fact that the California Dry League, noting the Press editorial, has given that paper credit for its large monetary sacrifice, and seems not to know that the Register—and likely many other papers—made the same sacrifice.

It is a significant fact that the "Wets" are willing and can afford to spend so much money to get a hearing before the readers of papers supporting state-wide prohibition.

Investigations of income tax returns may be relied on to produce further employment for the expert accountants and lightning calculators.

While the White House phraseology is more elaborate, the sentiment in Congress is, "We'll fight it out on this line if it takes all summer."

The administration holds night councils, while Congress chants, "Amid the encircling gloom, lead thou me on!"

The Political Watchtower

Witness or dryness is in the political atmosphere. It is there in sufficient quantities to constitute a cloud. This particular kind of a cloud seems to be more of a dry cloud than it is a wet cloud. Most clouds are wet. The school books tell us so. If so in this case, the cloud is different from the ones the school books had in mind, for the cloud is certainly a dry cloud.

Everybody knows that next November California is going to vote upon a proposal to make the whole state dry. There is any number of people in this county who are intensely interested in that question, and with it foremost in their political thoughts they want to fight that question out up and down the line, from daylight to dark and from dark to daylight, in the highways, by-ways and polling places, in the midst of turmoil and turbulent tossings.

They tell me that the question of pledging county candidates has been up before the County Dry Federation, and that several of the local dry organizations have given the matter consideration. The County Dry Federation did not reach a conclusion. At least, it did not conclude to ask any candidate as to whether or not he is wet or dry. It was proposed that the question be put to every candidate. Some others seemed to think that it should be put to only those candidates seeking offices that might be concerned in the enforcement of prohibition laws. These would include judges, district attorney, sheriff, justices of the peace and constables. Others felt that with the state-wide fight on prohibition, each candidate for assemblyman ought to be quizzed as to how he stands.

Then there was another sentiment expressed, and that was that the organization is chiefly interested in getting California beer mugs turned permanently up-side-down, and that all forces should use their ammunition upon the citadel rather than engage in warfare upon candidates. It was feared that a fight on candidates would weaken the attack upon the main issue.

So nothing was done about it by the County Dry Federation, and that does not mean that it may not do something quite important concerning one or more of the offices. We have it pretty straight that the Anaheim W. C. T. U. is not taking the same view of it that the County Federation majority seems to have taken at the last meeting. The Anaheim W. C. T. U. wants to know right out in meeting how certain candidates stand. In fact, the ladies of that organization are reported to have put the question, straight to a candidate for assemblyman.

The assembly fight has been the center of a number of developments since the Watchman last wrote out his observations. It seems that a goodly bunch of P. L. Tople's friends want him to try for the Progressive nomination for assemblyman. Tople is secretary of the Progressive County Central Committee, and there is no question but that he is a strong supporter of the Johnson administration. So is Hans V. Weisel of Anaheim, who is a candidate for the Progressive nomination.

Fullerton may have a candidate for the Progressive nomination for that same office. One of the papers in the north end of the county stated that the Prohibitionists wanted S. C. Hartman of Fullerton to be a candidate for the Prohibition nomination for assemblyman. Yesterday the Towerman got it from a Fullerton man who is in a position to know that Hartman is a Progressive, and that a petition is being circulated asking that Hartman become a candidate for the Progressive nomination.

A week ago the Watchtower stated that W. W. Simon of Santa Ana was thinking of becoming a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the job now held by Weisel. That was true then. It is still true.

If a man is going to get his name on the ballot he might as well understand that the time in which he can out his nomination papers on file at the office of the county clerk is at an end in a week from now. Most of the candidates have their petitions returned. It is understood that whatever the Socialists do about getting their ticket on the ballot will be done by first of next week after their picnic at Birch Park next Sunday. So far only two or three have taken out nomination papers.

A SANE FOURTH AND "CALIFORNIA DRY" IN 1914

As I lay awake in the early morning hours of our national holiday, and all was quiet outdoors and in, my mind harked back to the wildest days when at midnight the small boy made a racket with his fire crackers, the adolescent youth increased the din with cannon crackers and bombs, and the patriotic old boy resorted to anvils and cannon.

And in the papers of the morrow we would learn that the small boy had his face filled with powder, the adolescent youth had an arm blown off, and the patriotic old boy was killed outright.

Now this is changed. The papers are no longer filled the next day with a long list of Fourth-of-July accidents.

How has this been brought about? By a campaign of education and by prohibition laws. And we all approve and rejoice. No one clamors that personal liberty has been curtailed. No one bemoans the loss of capital that had been enlisted in the manufacture of fireworks, or whines over the poor people who have been thrown out of employment and deprived of the means of making an honest living.

Now, if this prohibition is O.K. for fireworks, why is it not infinitely more proper when applied to alcoholic beverages?

The injury done by the one is comparatively small and for but one day a year; the curse of alcoholism is world-wide and continuous. Of this we are all painfully aware. There is not a family in our nation who has not suffered directly or indirectly from alcoholism.

No more loss of personal liberty is caused by prohibition in one case than in the other.

As to the loss from alcoholic prohibition—upon whom will that fall? Not upon the consumer. He himself acknowledges that he is better off without it.

Not upon the grape grower. He is paid just enough for his grapes to hold him to the business. His land would be much more profitable in almost any other crop.

Not on the employees of the distilleries and breweries. They could all find better employment elsewhere. Then who would suffer?

The distillers and brewers themselves. Would not we, as a nation, be the gainer, socially and financially by buying out the whole lot, putting the property to some better use and retiring them all on a pension?

So let us educate, prohibit, and vote California dry in 1914.

The battle will be a fierce one. King Alcohol and Kaiser Gambirinus are arraying their dupes and minions for the contest; and organized systematic work in educating and arousing everyone to the importance of voting California dry in 1914, is imperative.

CHARMING LUNCHEON

Mrs. I. W. Van Cleave Hostess
a First of Two Social Affairs
She Gives This Week

Mrs. I. W. Van Cleave of 317 Halesworth street entertained yesterday with a charmingly appointed luncheon of five courses. The table was attractively adorned with exquisite Cecile Bruners, and handsome lace doilies, the handwork of the clever hostess, added distinction to the table appointments.

The pink color motif was evident in both house and table decorations and in the refreshments. Places were marked for Mrs. J. W. Bishop, Mrs. J. P. Baumgartner, Mrs. Fred Case, Mrs. Frank Case, Mrs. C. S. Kendall, Mrs. Samuel W. Nau, Mrs. A. S. Peek, Mrs. P. L. Topie, Mrs. J. I. Roper, Mrs. W. L. Tubbs, Miss Mary Cotten.

Following the luncheon the afternoon was spent in informal conversation, some of the ladies having their needlework with them. Miss Carol Van Cleave, who has for the last few months been devoting herself to the study of vocal music, sang charmingly for the company. Her voice is a contralto of pleasing quality. She was accompanied by Miss Helen Haskin, lately arrived here from Billings, Montana, where she recently completed a music course. Miss Haskin joined her parents here, they having located in Santa Ana last fall. They are neighbors to the Van Cleave, and Miss Haskin and Miss Van Cleave are mutually interested in music. Their joint numbers yesterday were greatly enjoyed by the guests of Mrs. Van Cleave. Another luncheon at which Mrs. Van Cleave is to be hostess will be one of tomorrow's social events.

HOW BEST TO SERVE

For this is Love's nobility—
Not to scatter bread and gold,
Goods and raiments, bought and sold;
But to hold fast, his simple sense,
And speak the word of innocence,
And with hand and body and blood,
To make his bosom-counsel good.
He that feedeth men serveth few;
He serves all who dares be true.
—Emerson.

Philatheas Were Happy

There was genuine rejoicing last night when the young women of the Philathea class of the First Presbyterian church met in their class room at the church. The deposit of $500 in the Philathea treasury for the payment of the class pledge towards the lifting of the church debt, was the cause of the rejoicing. There was a large attendance of the members and a real jubilation ensued.

There were other pleasurable features of the evening that added to the general happiness. One of these was the arrival of the four handsome leather upholstered chairs recently ordered for the principal officers of the class. Those who will occupy the chairs are Miss Alice Wasser, president; Miss Adeline Hill, vice president; Miss Greta Rice, secretary; and Mrs. J. G. Morrow, class teacher. It was decided to purchase seats to match the long library table used at the meetings of the class, also pen and ink sets and a Japanese jardiniere to adorn the room. A pretty gold clock was presented to the class by one of the members last evening, the gift being a most welcome one. It was decided to have the title "Philathea" placed over the classroom door.

At the completion of the discussion of these and other plans, a social period was enjoyed and luscious fruit was served for refreshments.

For Southern Guests

Miss Linda Paul and her house guests, Miss Sallie Walthall Howell from Texas, and Miss Corinne Cabert of Nashville, Tennessee, have gone to Los Angeles for a week's stay. These two charming southern girls have been the guests of honor at several social functions at the home of their hostess. One of these was a luncheon given by Miss Paul with the teachers of the Lincoln school as guests.

A most enjoyable evening function with about thirty guests present was given in their honor by Miss Paul one evening last week, and an "over-the-Fourth" house party was given with old Nashville friends, now living in Los Angeles, as special guests.

WHAT A THOUGHTFUL MAN COULD SAY

The Anaheim people have been busy with their river protection plans. They go to the supervisors with the scheme in a short time. Their plans call for suitable dikes to a point an eighth of a mile below the Olive bridge.

Now some thoughtful man will be sure to ask some questions. He will want to know why it will not be almost a sure thing for the water which has been properly confined by the new dikes, to break out of the bed at the point where the dikes end, and come on toward Garden Grove. Some fellow will have to scratch his head at least in three places before he can point out that the danger has not been increased by the plans Anaheim is going to put through.—Garden Grove News.

"HEARTS ADRIFF" BIG HIT AT THE TEMPLE THEATER

The Temple held a spellbound audience last night, whose intense interest was transplanted to a desert island and of great rocky dunes and creeping tides and the piquant face of little Mary Pickford. No other actress could have played the part of Nina, the little wild girl, and the setting for her story is almost unequalled in the grandeur of its great cliffs and foaming sea. The story of "Hearts Adrift" opens with the casting up of Nina as a child on the desert island. She is lonely until the body of Jack Graham is washed ashore from a shipwreck. The little girl finds love and happiness in him, and a child is born to them. Back in God's country his faithful wife has never ceased searching for him. She locates the desert island and her long lost husband. Their reunion is seen by Nina and the tragic little wild woman ends the man's great struggle for duty by jumping into a flaming crater with her baby in her arms.

"Hearts Adrift" closes its engagement at the Temple tonight.

At the Lyric Theater

The 4th episode in the Lucille Love, the girl of mystery series, is having a heavy patronage at the Lyric Theater this afternoon, and judging from the past attendance this series is becoming the most popular of any ever presented in Santa Ana. While it is true that the theater-goers are tired of serial stories, still the Lucille Love series is holding up mighty well and promises to increase in patronage as the story progresses.

Besides Lucille Love, the management is presenting Lois Weber and Philip Smalley in an entertaining drama of the sea coast, entitled, "Avenged," together with an Elclair Kid comedy-drama, entitled, "In an Old Truck," and a laugh provoker, "In a Battle Royal," featuring Universal like, Jr.

The same program will be presented tonight.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Today is the "birthday" of the capital. One hundred and twenty-two years ago today this city was selected for the nation's capital. HUERTA HAS MOTHER-IN-LAW WHO SYMPATHIZES WITH HIM

(By William G. Shepherd, United Press Staff Correspondent.)
VERA CRUZ, June 24.—(BY MAIL TO NEW YORK)—One of the most interesting facts about Victoriano Huerta is that he has a mother-in-law, and that, contrary to the usual run of such affairs, she is thoroughly in sympathy with him. In a rather plain house at 581 Avenida Chapultepec, Señora Aguilera, who is now 98 years old, holds forth for all her children and her children's husbands and wives. Scarcely a day goes by that she does not chat with at least twenty of her children or grandchildren, holding family court in Mexican fashion, listening to stories of troubles or joys and giving such advice as she sees fit. Not infrequently the great dictator of Mexico himself, breezes into her quiet room with a joke and a laugh. "You rascal," is his mother-in-law's name for him, and he is always sure of a welcome. There was a time, it is said, during the old days at Monterey, Mexico, when Huerta was only a sewer building contractor and money was scarce and Huerta's habits none too steady, when Señora Aguilera held forth so kindly greeting for her daughter's husband. The children were coming into the Huerta home rapidly, and such debts were piling up on the Huerta household that it is only since he has been "president" that Huerta has been able to pay them off. But all that Huerta has done in the last year or so has wiped off the score with the bright-minded old lady and she takes great delight in seeing her daughter, Mary, the "first lady of the land."

As for the daughter, herself, being "the first lady of the land" is not so much pleasure. Mrs. Huerta is a bright spot in the Huerta family; though she is 48 years old—being 16 years older than her eldest child—she is every inch a mother. The society folks of Mexico say of her that she does not scintillate in society because she tries to brood. To be a mother has been her life training; to be a society woman is a thing she has never learned, because her husband is a soldier and, by the strange rule of things in Mexico, a soldier has no social standing whatever. At the brilliant social reception which "President" Huerta has always insisted be given monthly at Chapultepec, Mrs. Huerta is never at ease and Mexican society folks laugh in their sleeves at her habit of herding in a corner with her immediate relatives, while her husband, disregarding all the finesses of a society man, flits about the rooms from group to group, coaxing men to the sideboard or punchbowl and making stinging jokes. Mexican society never took Madero, after he became president, because, society folks said, he was a "peon's president."

On the contrary, after Huerta took the presidential power, society folk who had belonged to the aristocratic Diaz regime, found necessary to take in Huerta and his family, because Huerta was "putting the peons where they belonged—into the army." All of this is a joke to Huerta, who sees the inside of society's idea. He knows, well enough, why he and his family have suddenly been elevated by the aristocrats of Mexico. There is nothing he loves better to do, in his role of dictator, than to threaten, tactfully, in a banquet speech, to place the men of Mexico's aristocracy in the army. The face of more than one aristocrat has blanched at Huerta's suggestion of this sort. In the exclusive Jockey Club, in the capital, where Huerta was never admitted before he seized the presidency, he delights to stand at the bar and, in sinister tones, grumble out his threats to seize all men in Mexico, "rich or poor," and place them in the field. Analyzing the Huerta family, socially, their standing is nil and, what's more, neither the dictator nor his wife care for society or its gradings.

The eldest child of the Huerta's is Señora Francisco Colon, of Monterey, wife of a civil engineer. The Colon family is now in the capital, having fled from Monterey just before the rebels seized it. "She's a woman—no more," is the way Mexican men describe a woman who has no social training or brilliancy in conversation and I have had the Huerta girls so described to me by a Mexican club man. Under that same rating society people of the capital place Lus Huerta, who is 18 years old and who, in December was married to an old sweetheart of hers whom her father immediately made colonel in the Mexican army, though he had before been only an employee in a business house. Luz, however, under the American rating of girlhood, stood high in the capital. She is pretty, vivacious, always laughing. She liked Americans and once when she was a little girl of thirteen she acknowledged that she idealized Arnold Shanklin, the American consul general and would marry no one but an American. Leonora Huerta is now sixteen years old, but, like the rest of the marriageable Huerta children, she has made hay while the sun shone on her remarkable father and has become engaged, with the hopes of having a "White House" wedding. The lucky young man to whom she is engaged is named Quiróz; he is only 22 years old and he was a clerk in a government office until Leonora's father settled upon her selection and one morning young Quiróz awoke to find that he had been appointed a general in the Mexican army. Only recently, when Huerta suspected that the chief of police of the capital was plotting against him, Quiróz was made head of the capital police, with some 4000 armed policemen under him.

George Huerta, Victoriano's eldest son, can be disposed of in a few words, in much the same fashion that Mexico City's social leaders dispose of him. They say he's "impossible." In the old days folks used to pity General Huerta because, as they said, "George never worked and was always living off his poor old father."

The taste for cognac and for wild auto rides and for chorus girls has descended, it appears, upon George. Crude, arrogant, selfish, all the social attention he gets in the capital is given to him through fear. He, too, had a "White House" wedding about a year ago. George is about 30 years old. He has a brother, Victor, about 22, who went through a "White House" wedding on April 22, the day after the Americans landed at Vera Cruz. Victor, too, has the cognac, auto habit, and in Mexican slang "loves pollo," "polo" meaning fast girl. Incidentally, "polo" also means "chicken."

Two other boys of 15 and 12 years make up the Huerta household.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

Southern California's most detectable summer deciduous fruit, the nectarine, is on the market. The first stock is not very large, but of good flavor and sold yesterday at $1.50 per box. There was a fair opening demand for it. Bartlett pears have been coming in for three or four days and these are selling well. They are worth up to $1.75 on choice stock. New apples are more plentiful right along, but there is as yet no great demand. A few winesaps are still on the market from last fall. These are moving at $1.50 per packed box, having dropped a dollar during the past week because of the new apples and the abundance of other fruits.

Cling and freestone peaches, yellow and white, are as plentiful as last week and are bringing from 50 to 85 cents a box, according to quality and variety. Receipts of peaches from outside sources yesterday were 2682 boxes. Plus receipts were 2649 boxes, apricots 2250 boxes, and cantaloupes totaled 2911 crates. Shippers in the Imperial country have been shipping very systematically and without flooding the market at any time with their product, thereby creating a very steady quotation. Cherries have absolutely disappeared, no varieties being obtainable at this late date any more. The egg market was unchanged yesterday and trading was only fair.

Pile Up Your Money For a Rainy Day!

ONE of the queerest things about some people is that they will not follow GOOD ADVICE when they KNOW they OUGHT TO. Perhaps we are all more or less that way. All the wise men of all ages have urged their fellow beings to PUT AWAY SOMETHING for a RAINY DAY. Good old Benjamin Franklin's sayings on economy and saving alone ought to make a bank book holder of EVERY ONE. If you have DELAYED, suppose you act HONESTLY with YOURSELF RIGHT NOW.

AT THE COURT HOUSE SUING DOCTOR FOR DAMAGES DONE AN AUTO

Collision at First and Main Street on April 18
Has Echo

A collision of two automobiles at the corner of First and Main streets on April 18 had an aftermath at the court house today when Henry B. Stewart brought suit against Dr. Jas. Doyle of Santa Ana for $377.77.

Stewart and his brother, Los Angeles attorneys, were driving north on Main when their machine collided with Dr. Doyle's machine, which was turning east to First. Stewart asks $177.77 for a repair bill and $200 for the loss of the use of the machine for a month.

Suit Over Land
B. F. Young has brought suit against Ellen M. Young and Gertrude and S. B. Zimmer for an accounting. Young alleges that land was bought in Los Angeles as community property, by him and Ellen Young. Several trades were made, and the land always kept in Ellen Young's name. Young alleges that in 1909 the three defendants entered into a conspiracy to defraud him of his share of property worth $32,000. He says that by "force and violence, threats and intimidations" they compelled him to sign a deed, and the only consideration he received was $250. Young says that he is 58 years old and a cripple.

It seems that Ellen Young sued the Zimmermans to get back a deed that she gave in order to defraud Young. Young says a settlement is made out of court in that case, and he wants his share looked after by the court. Linney & Schoonover of Los Angeles are attorneys for the plaintiff.

Be no Appeal
Today Justice Cox got a check for $100 from the Klein-Simpson Fruit company in payment of the fine imposed for offering short weight butter for sale. The company had expected to appeal, but on thinking it over it was decided not to do so.

OPEN SHOP RULE
ON IN STOCKTON

STOCKTON, July 8.—Following a meeting of the Merchants & Manufacturers Association and employers last night, the open shop rule was inaugurated here today. The first evidence of a fight came when the planing mills notified their employees that hereafter the unions would not be recognized, although the present wage scale will prevail. Two hundred mill employees immediately quit.

It is expected the building trades employees will quit when the contractors receive the first consignments of lumber not bearing the union stamp, and the fight will probably spread to all industries.

FREE LIBRARY HEARING IS ON

A Number of Women Committees Present to Be Heard Today

This afternoon the Board of Supervisors is hearing the arguments upon the proposal to establish a county free library.

A number of women are present, some representing the plan of establishing a new library and others favoring the plan of letting a contract to some municipal library to supply the county's needs. Miss Eddy, the state organizer, who favors the former plan, is present. Mrs. A. J. Lawton, who favors the municipal contract, is to speak.

Contract Let
The supervisors let a contract to Stewart & Cleland for building a boat house at the county park, for $643. Other bids were: O. V. Noble, $797; E. A. Noe, $782; C. McNeill, $822.80; J. S. Fleur, $669; R. C. McMillan, $884; G. C. Pickering, $780; A. M. Boyd, $793; A. H. Anderson, $775.

Storm Water District
The supervisors have received a petition for a new storm water district. Recently a petition was received for building a dike on the west side of the river from Yorba down to a mile south of the Olive bridge. The new petition is for building a dike at Yorba, and land in the proposed district lies in and along a storm water wash which begins at Yorba and runs north of Anaheim.

Carvass the Vote
The supervisors in going over the returns found that the vote cast against forming a library district at Placentia was 45 no and 31 yes.

Quit Meat if Your KIDNEYS ACT BADLY

Take Tablespoonful of Salts if Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.—Advertisement.

WALNUT CROP
10,529 TONS

This is Prediction Made by the Association's Official

A walnut crop of 10,529 tons of record-breaking superior quality is the new estimate of the California Walnut Growers' Association for the 1914 output of the states, contained in a circular just issued to the trade.

"The fine growing conditions we have had all season have brought the nuts up to very large sizes, so that the weight per nut will probably be 25 per cent over last year's average," reads the circular. "In 1913 the shipments of the California Walnut Growers' Association averaged 28 per cent No. 2s. Our estimate this season is but 6 per cent No. 2s. Barring the remote possibility of another freakish hot spell, California will ship the finest walnuts this year that have ever left the state."

Crop Grows Rapidly
Of the 10,529 tons estimated, it is expected that 7385 tons will be shipped by the association and 3144 by other shippers. The crops of the past few years were as follows: 1903, 12,678,248 pounds; 1906, 15,996,887 pounds; 1909, 18,695,686 pounds; 1911, 25,070,340 pounds; 1912, 22,431,982 pounds; 1913, 22,378,354, including 1,250,000 pounds off grade.

Over 50 per cent of the association's holdings have been sold in the last sixty days, and the new crop will find a practically bare market.

A reduced rate has been secured for shipments of walnuts via the canal route to the principal eastern seaboard ports. The new rate is 55 cents per hundred pounds. With insurance and freight, from packing house to Los Angeles Harbor and dockage, the total carrying charge on such shipments will run to about ¾ of a cent per pound. A further reduction of the water rate to 50 cents is expected.

Market Very Favorable
From the reports being received that the foreign walnut crops, both in Europe and Manchuria, will be shorter this year than last, it is expected that the market conditions in this country will be unusually favorable this year.

As a summary, the report states: "Summing the situation up from the trade's point of view, the season promises to be a most satisfactory one all around—excellent quality, large sizes and an early harvest. Then, too, the growers' ideas of prices are more conservative than they were a year ago. They are realizing that they must sell at a price that will permit the dealers to make a decent profit. While it is, of course, impossible to talk definite figures at this time, it is safe to say that the prices when opened will prove attractive to the trade. We have restricted the acceptance of S. A. P. orders even below the contract provision and therefore expect to make 100 per cent deliveries on all orders confirmed."

Production of honey in Orange county this season will be very light. This is owing to the fact that a large majority of the bee men have taken their aparies out of the county and that many of the ranches formerly devoted to honey raising have been put to other uses.

What few bees remain in this locality have not done well this spring owing to the cloudy weather which prevailed until about two months ago, although the bees have been working hard during the past two weeks. Fewer bees in the county as well as unfavorable weather conditions will combine to limit this year's crop to about fifty per cent of a normal one.

A Los Angeles produce report says on honey:
"The fact that the bees have been very busy this spring and the market on honey is more than well supplied has caused a decline in that product. There was some carry-over stock on the hands of dealers when the first new honey started to arrive. This, with the fact that the demand in the East, as well as in Europe, which furnished some outlet for the California honey, has been slack, caused all grades to go lower. Comb, water white, the product of the sage and orange blossoms is selling at 15 cents. White is down to 13 and light amber to 12. The extracted varieties, according to quality, are selling from 7 to 8 cents a pound. Beeswax has not changed in price, there being a steady demand for this, more so by far than for honey."
